

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

Allowing such possible mergers is as Orwellian and unAmerican as anything that I could possibly think of. This may be what looks good on paper to certain economist but will eventually fail.

Don't forget about your family and the next generation they will produce. They might not be as fortunate as you are and have to live with your decisions.
